

Law Offices in Belleville

Law Offices in Belleville - Regulating activities in the telecommunication and broadcasting businesses are the Entertainment, Media & Sports laws. We represent at our firm, our client's interests before commissions and tribunals, by using a multidisciplinary approach that is demanded by this complex area of law.

Our clients includes individuals like for instance entertainers, professional athletes and artists. We provide them with assistance connected to tax planning, contract negotiation; intellectual property protection and dispute settlement.

We work closely with professionals in our Corporate Finance, Corporate/Commercial, Tax and Technology & Communications teams to be able to structure and carry out financing arrangements. Our clients include producers of motion pictures, theatrical works and television programs. We likewise represent and advise organizations that are in the process of acquiring or expanding telecommunication networks and cable systems.