

Disability Lawyers Belleville

Disability Lawyers Belleville - Our attorneys represent clients in estate, guardianship, tax and trust concerns. Our clientele consist of individuals, families, business owners, non-profit and charitable organizations. Clients benefit from our personalized gift and estate plans, which are tailored in order to help with the preservation and protection of their accumulated assets.

Estate plans can range in complexity from the comparatively simple family home transfer plan to the transfer of a business's control and ownership in a smooth and tax efficient way. As part of our estate planning practice, we assist clients in implementing and formulating plans, comprising the preparation of required papers. Some of the tools we could incorporate into estate plans are Living trusts, Health care Proxies, Wills, Life Insurance Trusts, Power of Attorney and Supplemental Needs Trusts.

We understand that estate planning and estate administration could be stressful and emotional for people. We have both the experience and the sensitivity to provide high quality legal services in an attentive, compassionate and cost-effective way. When a death occurs, surviving family members depend on the knowledge and experience of our lawyers to assist them with the administration of the trusts and estate. Our experience comprise dealing with creditors, filing estate tax returns, probating wills, and lessening estate income tax and estate tax. When litigation of estate matters is inevitable and required so as to protect the estate's interest, its fiduciaries and its beneficiaries, our litigators have the skill to act in the best interests of their clients.