

Belleville Family Lawyers

Belleville Family Lawyers - Our family law practitioners help clients going through the breakdown of a marriage or common-law relationship with services and advice associated to business valuation, prenuptial agreement, divorce, and other legal issues. When marital-type relationships falter, clients require sound assistance and advice with respect to agreements governing their business and personal assets.

Clients want to maximize outcome and lessen disruptions and costs. Legal ramifications are best resolved with a combination of resourcefulness and common sense. Alternate dispute resolutions or direct negotiation are often sufficient to solve family issues. Nevertheless, when suitable, family law problems can proceed to court.

Divorce Settlements

To help our clients in acquiring satisfactory settlements, we have family law professionals. Issues of spousal support and property division which normally accompany a divorce is handled by our many skilled family law lawyers. The law governing spousal support is complex and always evolving. Clients rely on knowledgeable legal assistance in this area in order to protect their interests. Increasingly, separation and cohabitation agreements are subject to review and variation in the courts.

Business Valuations

Key assets subject to division in a divorce proceeding normally comprise business holdings. To be able to provide the foundation for an appropriate disposition, the business needs an accurate valuation for the purpose of dividing assets. Our family law firm works along with the right experts in order to ensure the right valuation of clients' business holdings.

Prenuptial Agreements

Clients might choose prenuptial agreements to be able to maintain their premarital assets and to better guarantee the implementation of the parties' intentions in the event that the marriage should fail. Our family law practitioners provide advice on and structure prenuptial agreements.

Estate Litigation

A very important part of our family law practice is in the defense of challenges to family trusts. Divorce proceedings can put family trust assets at risk. Estate litigators act to preserve and protect family trust assets when a marriage dissolves.

Mobility Rights

The rights of parents to mobility and access may be compromised after the dissolution of a marriage. Problems often relate to the parent's ability to relocate to another province, country or city together with a child of the marriage. Family law works to ensure that the client's rights are protected and considered.
