

Estate Lawyers Belleville

Estate Lawyers Belleville - When somebody you love passes away or becomes incapacitated estate litigation immediately follows. Emotions, family, and interpersonal disagreements take place, that in turn makes the responsibility of making essential decisions practically intolerable. Our firm has various types of services that could guarantee that all the estate issues are taken care of quickly and efficiently.

We could provide our services to the many executors, personal representatives, and beneficiaries about challenges to wills, trusts and powers of attorney. These challenges might also comprise guardianship and trusteeship disputes, will interpretation and undue influence, dependent adult claims, and capacity. Also, charitable institutions, trustees and trusts can rely on our company for useful advice.

In the case when the estate or a dependent adult are included, stressful and difficult situations can arise. We would ensure that our clients get straight-forward and effective advice. Our resolutions are achieved by way of arbitration, litigation, or mediation.