

Income Tax Lawyers in Belleville

Income Tax Lawyers in Belleville - Our skilled professionals all over the nation provide a lot of services in matters about estate planning and personal tax, tax litigation, corporate tax, and commodity tax fields. We offer our clients advice and assistance for both domestic and international transactions.

Many of our members have skill serving private industry and government tax departments and usually make submissions to the government about tax laws. They are also existing members of numerous professional organizations like the International Fiscal Association and the Tax Foundation. Also, members of our firm usually provide several educational lectures concerning taxation problems.

Our base of client's consist of a lot of trust companies, financial institutions, pension and mutual funds, foreign enterprises, owner-operated businesses, accounting firms, trusts, estates, and charitable foundations. In order to ensure that the suggestion our firm offers our clients is both sensible and proactive, we consult with other professionals in real estate, labour, corporate and commercial law.

Our company is skilled in all areas of tax law and provides specialized services which ensure our clients needs are met efficiently and effectively.