

Belleville Legal Aid

Belleville Legal Aid - Our firm's Education and Public Law team advises and represents school boards and educator organizations in the wide range of legal issues affecting them.

Amongst the legal assistance we offer in public law and education law are labour and employment relationships, contract negotiations, civil, commercial and general litigation, human rights, special education, appeals and judicial review, administrative law, freedom of information and privacy law, health law, constitutional law and conflict of interest law. We likewise advise and act on behalf of educator clients in aspects of corporate-commercial, like municipal law, real estate law and construction law.

We provide comprehensive, effective and timely assistance so as to help educators deal with the complex problems facing them.

Among our many clients consist of Catholic and public school boards, Ministries of Education, agencies and boards and governmental commissions. Our Education and Public Law practitioners work closely with experts within our Real Estate group and Business Law Group.

Our lawyers are frequently called upon to make presentations at national conferences and in-service seminars. They frequently publish articles regarding education and public law in journals and magazines.
