

Family Lawyers in Belleville

Family Lawyers in Belleville - There are some experiences in life more financially and emotionally draining than the dissolution of a marriage or family. Whenever family strife causes irreconcilable differences, it is imperative that you phone us before making any decisions. In such a tough time, the tendency is to want to move on with your life and just get through it with the least amount of drama. However, you require help of family law lawyers to be able to prevent making costly errors in judgment.

We can help you protect your interests and help keep your child in several instances. Our teams of lawyers will fight diligently to have you maintain custody, keeping you in an active role in your child's life. Child custody is most usually granted to the mom, providing she is considered a fit parent. Nevertheless, joint custody is a common alternative, and in several cases, sole custody may be granted to the dad.

We can help you build a strong case as to why your spouse must not have sole legal custody of your child, if this is not in yours or your kid's best interests. If you are seeking sole custody, our child custody lawyers would develop a case which shows the court the reason why you are the best individual to have sole custody.

The family law professionals in our company will help you to know your rights and make informed decisions as you proceed through significant changes in your family life. Our company offers clients a range of family law services, comprising assistance with divorce, equalization of assets, prenuptial or separation agreements and division of property. Our knowledgeable family law lawyers are up-to-date in all aspects of family law. Please contact us so as to obtain a consultation regarding all your legal options.
