

Personal Injury Law Belleville

Personal Injury Law Belleville - All parts of mergers and acquisitions, like for instance international, domestic and cross-border transactions, are entirely covered by our firm. Our experienced practitioners are renowned for their negotiating skills as well as their capability to find creative and realistic resolutions to intricate and complex issues.

After a clear understanding of our clients' objectives has been made, we provide recommendation and service to help acquire them. Our office treats every merger and acquisition as a business-critical undertaking, regardless of the size of the transaction. It is essential that we work as integral members of a client's transaction group to come to the most favorable and efficient deals.

Our office is also skilled in dealing with related practice fields, like tax, competition/antitrust, employment and labour, foreign investment review, intellectual property, litigation, pension and benefits, environmental and real estate matters. Because our practice is full service, we can offer comprehensive legal resolutions during all stages of the merger and acquisition mandate.
