

Belleville Personal Injury

Belleville Personal Injury - A personal injury could be a confusing and overwhelming experience. Your life could be turned upside down, physically, emotionally and financially. You need trusted and experienced advisors you can count on. Our senior law clerk and personal injury lawyer have the specialized legal experience to provide you with professional recommendation and representation. We can help you to understand the legislation as it applies to your particular case, and we will take the time to explain all of your options. We would be here from start to finish of the personal injury legal procedure.

Your initial consultation with a skilled personal injury lawyer would be provided without charge. If we accept your case on a "contingency fee" basis, you might not have to pay an initial retainer fee. In these circumstances, you will pay nothing in legal fees if we are unable to acquire compensation for you. We would receive a percentage of the settlement if we are successful in acquiring compensation. We would ensure that you know all the facts of the retainer agreement before you sign.

To be able to avoid your rights from expiring, you need to phone us as soon as possible following your injury. The particular time periods within which you have to bring your claim can differ from a few days to two years.

We have knowledge in the following personal injury areas: motor vehicle accidents; dog bites and animal attacks; slip and fall injuries; long-term disability claims; and pension plan appeals.

Personal injury cases are settled out of court. The objective of our company is to offer effectual negotiation, while working towards avoiding costly court procedures. If it does become necessary, we have skilled litigators who will represent you before all levels of the courts.
