

Business Lawyer Belleville

Business Lawyer Belleville - We offer various services to many financing and leasing companies, financial institutions, and other non-bank lenders including documenting and structuring an assortment of loan transactions. These transactions comprise lines of credit, term loans, asset-based loans, revolving credit facilities, subordinated financings, lease financings, real estate development financings and motion picture financings.

The business clients come to rely on our services in helping them to negotiate, arrange, and getting credit facilities.

Our lawyers are really familiar with public sector financing and with assistance programs and structures. They have broad knowledge with industrial development transactions, industrial revenue bond issuances, state and local development agency financings and programs.

Moreover, our lawyers assist lenders and borrowers with work-outs and loan restructurings.