

Belleville Law Firms

Belleville Law Firms - Our team of administrative lawyer's works on various matters connected to regulatory agencies and tribunals for our clients who comprise: businesses, not-for-profit organizations, governments and individuals. Our lawyers act for clients before commissions and tribunals regarding issues related to information and privacy, gaming and liquor, human rights, water quality safety, and insurance.

Our lawyers have expertise handling boards of inquiry and different administrative tribunals established for workplace safety and health and environmental law. We provide initial due diligence and structure compliance-based transaction strategies. We have several years of knowledge acting for clients before administrative law decision-makers. Our lawyers even bring to the table valuable adjudicative knowledge via serving as arbitrators and mediators.