

Criminal Law Firms in Belleville

Criminal Law Firms in Belleville - Our Intellectual Property & Technology Practice offers a range of services to clients regarding all aspects of intellectual property law. This consists of licensing, industrial designs, copyrights, trade-marks, software, confidentiality, trade secrets, biotechnology, and various technology issues. We are proactive in our approach to offering timely solutions to clients' matters.

Our business clients are passionate regarding their innovative services and products and offering the creative energy considered necessary to be able to be successful. We deal with clients from both the public and private sectors. They come from diverse fields like the software, music, film, travel, service and manufacturing trades. Our company provides sophisticated legal tools and services designed to secure and protect our clients' services and products. When clients have international issues, we work extensively with foreign legal counsel so as to offer solutions.

To solve the various technological and business challenges, our company seek to apply innovative methods. We keep up with all the latest trends in emerging media and technology, to alert our clients to whichever potential legal effects. To be able to ensure various legal services are existing to our clients, our lawyers form client teams along with other lawyers, when appropriate.

Copyright

We can offer expert legal advice in the areas of international copyright conventions and copyright legislation. The holders of copyright would receive advice about infringement and enforcement. We also review and draft license arrangements, and help with the protection and registration of clients' copyright both locally and internationally.

Trade-marks

As registered Trade-mark Agents, we prepare and prosecute trade-mark applications, conduct trade-mark and name searches, represent clients in trade-mark litigation, get clearance and pre-clearance both internationally and nationally, and carry out trade-mark licensing. To assist our clients who are involved in globalized name and mark arrangements; we draw upon established relationships with a broad network of trade-mark agents. The would assist to ensure a smooth delivery on an inter-jurisdictional basis. Clients get help in the resolution of disputes and the enforcement of trade-mark right in the administrative forums and courts.

Technology

We have clients involved in commercializing and developing new software and various innovative services and products. Our services help both established and emerging and new companies and organizations in the following fields: biotechnology, pharmaceutical, nutraceutical, hospitals; video game publishing and development; and software publishing and design. Our technology experts advise clients regarding issues such as e-business and the internet, the use of "open source" code, technology transfers, system acquisitions, licensing, technology aspects of commercial mergers and transactions, distribution agreements, joint ventures, corporate financing and structure, and strategic alliances.

Patents

Our Practice members advise clients about contractual matters associated to patents, like for instance the acquisition and licensing of patent rights.

Industrial Design

Our industrial design professionals help clients in the prosecution and preparation of industrial design registrations in Canada. Proper referrals to U.S. agents in connection with design patents within the U.S. could likewise be offered.

Litigation

We even litigate for our clients in problems about disputes involving industrial design, copyright, licensing, confidentiality agreement, trade-marks, passing off, trade secrets and patents.